

30 Minute Career Blast™

Thanks for your interest in the 30 Minute Career blast. In 30 short minutes, I'll do everything I can to help accelerate your career development.

I've been doing business in Japan for 24 years, have worked with candidates in my recruiting business for 8 years, and I'm a certified success coach (CCP)—the bottom line is that I love helping people with their careers.

It's simple...here's how it works:

First 15 Minutes

During the first 15 minutes we'll go over in detail the following questions:

- 1) What do you really want to do in your career? (i.e. What is your dream job?)
- 2) Tell me about something you've achieved at work in the past that you are proud of and that created positive results. What exactly did you do to create those results?
- 3) What do you think are your three biggest professional strengths?
- 4) What is your current compensation and what is your target compensation?
- 5) What do you think would be the best next-step in your career that will help you move towards your long-term goals?

Next 15 Minutes

During the next 15 minutes, we'll have an open discussion on what ACTIONS can be taken after the meeting to move you forward to where you want to go.

You can ask me anything you'd like and I may ask you some follow up questions, but the focus is on real steps that you can take including things you'll agree to do and things I'll agree to do such as:

- 1) Make a list of your ten target employers. (you)
- 2) Introduce you to an open job opportunity, (me)
- 3) Make a personal mission/vision statement, (you)
- 4) Refer you to a qualified recruiter, (me)
- 5) Pursue a professional certification such as PMP, CPA, etc. (you)
- 6) Introduce you to a professional connection (me)
- 7) Etc. etc.

Conclusion

We'll wrap up the meeting with a mutual agreement to follow up as needed and each of us will be clear on any next steps.

The process is oriented to three important goals:

- 1) Getting clarity on career objectives.
- 2) Understanding your strengths, challenges, and opportunities.
- 3) Committing to taking action.

Simple, right? If this sounds like a fun and interesting process for you and you'd like to schedule a 30 Minute Career Blast to help accelerate you towards your goals, please get in touch with me to schedule an appointment. I'll send you a link to my Google calendar and you can pick a day/time/place that works for you.

As mentioned, I try to set these meetings up on Fridays and one Saturday each month. I know that this can be a problem for some of you, so if you absolutely can't make it work, let's discuss the alternatives.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Cheers,

Gary
